Teachers set up, students join	Trading counts from Nov 2

Students trade real companies like Apple, Nike and Tesla at real market prices, using RGO Cash, the game's practice money (paper trading). Everything is real except the dollars. Students plan each trade, protect it with a stop, and explain why. Free for every student.

Play anywhere, all year. Works on a phone, tablet, Chromebook or computer, at school or at home, so a blocked school computer is never a problem. Students can place trades any time; each order fills at the next real closing price.

Teachers: 3 easy steps

1. Sign in at class.risegrowown.org with your school email. New site: ask IT to allow risegrowown.org and class.risegrowown.org.
2. Create your class, open Start a season, and tick Enter the Stock Market Simulation Challenge 2027. Dates and rules fill in for you. Share the class code.
3. Students join with the code, their first name and a 4-digit PIN. Get everyone in by Oct 30. Tip: run a practice game first, in teams or Solo.

Want a quick Zoom to get set up? Email hello@risegrowown.org with a few times that work, and we'll walk you through it.

Skill-based competition. Free to enter, no purchase needed. Students are ranked by net worth in RGO Cash at the final close on May 7, 2027. RGO Cash is practice money only: no real money is ever used or at risk. Students use a first name and a 4-digit PIN; no email or last name is collected. One player per student. Open-code (8LT6W3) winners: a parent or guardian emails hello@risegrowown.org, confirms the student is in middle or high school, and signs a short prize form; the prize goes to them.
